

OUR FOUR FUNDAMENTAL QUALITY PILLARS - IDENTIFYING GLOBAL BEST OF BREED BUSINESSES

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

The Fund is a feeder fund investing only in the Stonehage Fleming Global Best Ideas Equity Fund ("Master Fund"), managed by Stonehage Fleming Investment Management Limited. The Master Fund seeks to achieve long-term growth in capital and income in a focused portfolio of high quality listed businesses from around the world.

INVESTMENT PHILOSOPHY

We invest in best of breed businesses for their quality, strategic competitive edge and value.

FUND COMMENTARY

The first quarter of 2019 delivered the best first quarter returns since the turn of the century for both the Fund's comparative MSCI ACTR and the S&P 500 indices. Both indices have, though, not yet reached their respective peak levels registered last year.

Despite this positive backdrop, financial headlines are littered with news of the US yield curve inverting and the implied risks of an imminent US recession. Some perspectives in this context may be of value.

That the yield curve has inverted (and then flattened again) reflects the drop of long rates (10-years or longer) below the very short rates (up to 3 months) rather than below the more fundamentally based 2-year rate levels. Whilst we do not perceive yield curves based on short rates as fundamentally too well founded, an analysis of a number of such curves nevertheless indicate the possibility of an US recession about 24 months in the future.

The more fundamentally based yield curves are in process of flattening but have not yet inverted. If they may flatten and then immediately invert, it may signal the next US recession to be about 23 months away (considering data around the three most recent recessions). The S&P 500 index has historically peaked shortly before the respective recessions started. The average lead time over the last five recessions has been 4 months.

We studied the average S&P 500 return levels after 12, 18 and 24 months following the more fundamental 2/10-year curve inversions. They were +16%, +17% and +20% respectively ($-terms, excluding dividends). The lowest individual figure was -2% (after 18 months in the case of the 1980 inversion event).

We do not attempt to forecast equity markets but see it as our duty to seriously consider the risks of staying invested. The current headlines of yield inversion do not yet force us onto the proverbial side-lines.

INVESTMENT STRATEGY

- Invest for sustainable organic growth
- Fundamental research driven
- Particular focus on quality of management, balance sheet strength, return on invested capital, free cash flow generation, ability to grow dividends each year
- Bottom-up approach to identify exceptional businesses
- Global orientation, with emerging market exposure
- High conviction concentrated portfolio
- Predominantly larger capitalisation businesses, also consider exceptional medium-sized ones
- Buy to hold and disciplined selling
- No benchmark orientation, no active trading, no leverage, no hedging

DISCLOSURES AND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

A Feeder Fund is a portfolio that invests in a single portfolio of a collective investment scheme, which levies its own charges and which could result in a higher fee structure for the Feeder Fund.
