PORTFOLIO COMMENTARY

Following an impressive 2019 global equities suffered some volatility in January, with global equities returning -0.6% (in GBP). The outbreak of the coronavirus led to many investors scaling back risk exposure, particularly in emerging markets and the Asian Pacific region. Safe haven assets such as government bonds, gold and the US Dollar performed well, while oil and industrial metals suffered. The Pound Sterling weakened as Brexit became a reality on the 31st January. Against this backdrop the SF Global Balanced Portfolio fund returned -0.3%.

Despite the weakness in the equity market we saw a decent start to the year for some of our core managers, including SF Global Best Ideas (+1.5%), Findlay Park American (+1.1%) and Evenlode Global Income (+0.7%). Our allocations to Europe and emerging markets had a more difficult month, specifically SF JO Hambro European All Cap (-5.0%) and Vanguard EM Stock fund (-4.2%).

ACTIVE MANAGER IN FOCUS

The Findlay Park American Fund invests in large and mega-cap US equities, focusing on their cash flow generation and profit sustainability. Top holdings currently include Microsoft, Danaher and Becton Dickinson. At a sector level, the manager favours Healthcare, Technology and Financials and avoids Utilities and Real Estate. In recent months the fund has maintained an elevated cash balance reflecting the manager's cautious outlook. Over the long term the team have delivered strong outperformance of the US market and followed a disciplined process and philosophy that remains in place today.
