PORTFOLIO COMMENTARY

Global equities rose by 2.7% in October as investors welcomed progress between the US and China to reach ‘phase one’ of a trade deal. In the UK, Brexit negotiations concluded with a revised deal which was supported by Parliament, diminishing the threat of a near term ‘no deal’ exit. Despite uncertainty surrounding the upcoming general election, Sterling appreciated by 5% against the US Dollar resulting in a -2.4% return for global equities in GBP. Against this backdrop, the Global Balanced Portfolio fund was down by -0.3%.

The best performing position in October was the Blackrock Emerging Markets Debt fund, which returned 2.7% as emerging market currencies appreciated relative to the US Dollar. Within equities, we saw strong returns from our UK managers – Majedie and GLG. Both are finding good opportunities in domestically facing businesses, where Brexit-related uncertainty has depressed sentiment and lowered valuations.

ACTIVE MANAGER IN FOCUS

The BlackRock Emerging Markets Local Currency Bond Fund invests in sovereign debt of developing market countries, aiming to deliver return through EM currency appreciation, bond repricing and yield. The investment process combines global, regional and localised themes in order to generate alpha, as well as managing risk relative to their benchmark. The strategy is managed by three portfolio managers, led by Sergio Trigo Paz since 2009, and are supported by the wider research team at BlackRock. Currently the largest regional allocations are in Brazil, South Africa and Indonesia. The Fund provides an attractive income yield in excess of 6%.
