FUND COMMENTARY

On the 22nd of January 2020 Naspers announced that it had sold 22 million ordinary Prosus shares, amounting to approximately 1.4% of the total issued Prosus ordinary shares.

Following these sales Naspers' ownership stake in Prosus reduced from approximately 73.8% to approximately 72.5%, thereby increasing the Prosus free float from about 26.2% to about 27.5%. Naspers has agreed to a 90-day lock-up period with respect to its remaining interest in the Prosus ordinary shares.

Naspers completed the sales at €67.50 per Prosus share (representing a ~5% discount to the Prosus opening price of €70.87 on 22 January 2020), resulting in gross proceeds of approximately €1.5 billion (c. R24.0 billion) for Naspers.

Naspers further announced that it intends to use these net proceeds over time to return capital to Naspers shareholders in the form of a share repurchase programme, with the gross proceeds representing approximately 2.2% of Naspers' stock.

This announcement represents a welcomed incremental step towards addressing the discount at which Naspers trades relative to its underlying net asset value. In addition to increasing the free float market capitalisation of Prosus, this transaction also appears to make sense given a deeper discount at the Naspers level than at the Prosus level.
