PORTFOLIO COMMENTARY

The Global Multi Asset Portfolio Class A returned 1.0% in July versus 0.5% for the benchmark. Global equity markets rose in July following continued progress with vaccine rollouts and further easing of restrictions in developed markets. US equities led markets higher, whilst emerging market equities saw notable falls as China's regulatory clamp down gathered pace; this particularly impacted the large technology businesses and education sector. It was also a positive month for longer duration fixed income assets following falls in government bond yields.

Within the equity book, it was those managers favouring high growth and quality businesses which delivered the highest returns, as the rotation into these areas of the market that started in mid-June continued. Notable strong performers included our US managers, Edgewood and Findlay Park, as well as the Stonehage Fleming Global Best Ideas Fund. In absolute terms, our emerging market strategies struggled the most as Chinese stocks particularly came under pressure, but both Fidelity and Veritas were able to protect better protect capital than their respective benchmarks. Managers which have a tilt towards businesses trading on lower valuations underperformed for the most part as the 'recovery trade' lost steam; these included Lyrical, JO Hambro and Orbis.

The fixed income positions delivered positive returns in aggregate. Our longer duration bond positions benefitted from the fall in yields and the inflation protected bond rose the most. The only strategy which fell marginally was our emerging market debt strategy as EM currencies weakened against the US dollar during the month.

Within alternatives, all of our strategies made gains during the month. The standout long/short strategy was the Marshall Wace ESG TOPS Fund which benefitted from short positioning in China. Our gold position also rose during the month having been assisted by a softer US dollar, easing yields and a more dovish tone from the Federal Reserve.

ACTIVE MANAGER IN FOCUS

MW ESG (Market Neutral) TOPS UCITS Fund

The MW ESG (Market Neutral) TOPS strategy is an ESG derivation of Marshall Wace's (MW) long standing TOPS strategy. TOPS blends fundamentally underpinned trade ideas from the sell side community with sophisticated optimization, portfolio construction and risk management. Whilst this is a new strategy, it leverages the same core engine and quantitative intelligence that has been accumulated and developed by MW over the last 20 years.

The strategy has been tailored to suit an ESG investor through: onboarding ESG focused sell side analysts to generate fundamentally underpinned ESG trade ideas; introducing exclusions and restrictions on exposure to certain industries; supplementing trade ideas with proprietary signals linked to ESG factors and introducing ESG scoring at the portfolio construction stage.

The strategy is expected to be under constant evolution due to ongoing quant analysis, increases in and improvement in ESG data, and additional onboarding of sell side analysts.
