PORTFOLIO COMMENTARY

The Global Multi-Asset Portfolio B USD Class returned 3.9% in July vs 3.7% for the benchmark. Global equity markets rallied during the month following steep falls in valuations in the first half of the year and fairly robust Q2 earnings results. After a torrid first half of the year as well for bond markets, July saw a bounce driven by government bonds staging a rally. In Credit, spreads tightened in IG and HY markets after several months of widening driven by growth and rate concerns, potentially suggesting expectations of a shallower recession than initially thought.

Within equities, overall manager selection added value in July, most notably from our holding in Findlay Park American which performed well in the sector and style moves during the month as managers focused on high quality and growth businesses performed better. Sector allocation detracted value due to our targeted holdings in Insurance and Healthcare, which underperformed after holding up well this year.

Our fixed income book performed well, driven by our TIPS position and also PIMCO Income, as high yield bonds supported returns.

The alternatives positions underperformed overall due to our holding in gold, which fell during the month.

ACTIVE MANAGER IN FOCUS

Artisan US Focus Fund

The Artisan US Focus Fund is an equity fund investing predominantly in the US market. The team employ an investment philosophy which blends in-depth thematic idea generation with bottom-up fundamental stock selection. They start by seeking out inflections in multi-year trends, which are often misunderstood by the market, allowing them to take a differentiated view on industry fundamentals.

The team use their approach to construct a focused portfolio of 20-40 stocks, which is designed to maximise alpha whilst limiting downside risk. These stocks will typically sit across 5-8 themes, with each theme sized around 10%-30%.

The fund is managed by Chris Smith and is supported by a team of 7 investment professionals. The manager is not wedded to a philosophical style bias, and is very mindful of factor risks in the portfolio. Historically the fund has however demonstrated leanings towards some more growth thematic, though the manager has actively sought to balance this risk and introduce more value themes at various times.
