PORTFOLIO COMMENTARY

The Global Multi-Asset Portfolio B USD Class returned 2.8% in May vs 2.8% for the benchmark. Following a challenging April, global equities rebounded in May. US markets recovered amid ongoing tariff negotiations. However, rising concerns over the US fiscal outlook and policy volatility under President Trump continued to weigh on the US dollar.

Within equities our UK active manager, Man, performed particularly well this month given their focus on value and smaller companies which typically react more strongly to equity market moves. However, given the outperformance of cyclicalities our targeted exposure to health care and underweight exposure to information technology detracted from relative performance.

Treasury yields climbed, with the 10-year yield rising amid growing fears of a domestic economic slowdown. The fund benefited from its underweight exposure to fixed income in this environment but the portfolio's longer duration US Treasury positions detracted value.

After a strong run our alternatives which focus on more market-neutral strategies had a more difficult month on a relative basis. In particular, BlackRock Asia Pacific Absolute Return's short bias impacted performance against a background of firmer equity markets and gold consolidated following a period of exceptional performance.

INVESTOR PROFILE

The Fund is appropriate for all investor types, including those with only a basic knowledge of funds, it is compatible with investors who do not need a capital guarantee (investors must be prepared to accept fluctuations in the value of capital, including the ability to bear 100% capital loss) and looking for capital growth. Due to the volatility of markets, investors should be willing to accept price fluctuations in exchange for the opportunity of potentially higher returns. This is a long term investment. Investors should have an investment time horizon of at least 5 years. The recommended holding period does not provide any guarantee that the objective will be achieved. This product is eligible for all distribution channels (e.g. investment advice, portfolio management, non-advised sales and pure execution services).

The fund is unlikely to be appropriate for those who:

- Are looking for full capital protection or full repayment of the amount invested, and those who want a guaranteed return
- Have no risk tolerance
- Who are unwilling to accept price fluctuations (volatility) in the value of the fund
- Do not intend to invest for the long term
