STONEHAGE FLEMING SANLAM COLLECTIVE INVESTMENTS EQUITY FUND

Minimum Disclosure Document (Fund Fact Sheet)

March 2017

PORTFOLIO MANAGER MONTHLY COMMENT

On 30 March 2017 the South African President, Jacob Zuma, announced a significant cabinet reshuffle which saw the President appointing his fourth finance minister in two years. Both Finance Minister Pravin Gordhan and his deputy minister were removed from their posts. In total, twenty cabinet changes were made including the removal and replacement of five ministers and six deputy ministers. Initial reports have indicated that the reshuffle has sown further division within the ANC with alliance partners taking the unprecedented step of calling for the resignation of the President. Opposition parties have voiced their objections and on 18 April parliament is set to vote on the opposition party's motion of no confidence in President Zuma.

The Rand hit a 12-month high of R12.33 against the US Dollar on 27 March, but subsequently started to weaken as rumours of the cabinet reshuffle began to spread after the recall of Pravin Gordhan from an offshore roadshow. Given their sensitivity to the health of the domestic economy the JSE sectors that were the most negatively impacted were the financial, retailer and local listed property sectors. Given the resulting Rand weakness, 'Rand-hedges' such as British American Tobacco, ABInbev, Richemont had a very strong run into quarter end. With over 70% of the fund's revenue generated outside of the borders of South Africa, the fund is well placed to protect (and likely grow) the capital value of client investments should the Rand continue to weaken.
